Selected Definitions Used in Indiana's Product Liability Act

The Indiana Product Liability Act, which was recodified, contains several terms that are defined separately in the Indiana code at IC §§ 34-6-2-1 et seq. For the reader's convenience, selected terms from IC § 34-6-2 are defined in this section and identified by italic typeset in this reference guide. The Indiana General Assembly has noted, with regard to the recodification, that it was intended “to recodify prior civil law and procedure in a style that is clear, concise, and easy to interpret and apply[,]” and that the recodification was not intended to affect existing rights and liabilities, “any proceedings begun,” etc. See IC §§ 34-7-1-1, et seq.

Consumer

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-29. “Consumer,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means:

1. a purchaser;
2. any individual who uses or consumes the product;
3. any other person who, while acting for or on behalf of the injured party, was in possession and control of the product in question; or
4. any bystander injured by the product who would reasonably be expected to be in the vicinity of the product during its reasonably expected use.

Fault

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-45. (a) “Fault,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means an act or omission that is negligent, willful, wanton, reckless, or intentional toward the person or property of others. The term includes the following:

1. Unreasonable failure to avoid an injury or to mitigate damages.
 2. A finding under IC 34-20-2 (or IC 33-1-1.5-3 before its repeal) that a person is subject to liability for physical harm caused by a product, notwithstanding the lack of negligence or willful, wanton, or reckless conduct by the manufacturer or seller.
- (b) “Fault,” for purposes of IC 34-51-2 and IC 34-51-6, includes any act or omission that is negligent, willful, wanton, reckless, or intentional toward the person or property of others. The term also includes unreasonable assumption of risk not constituting an enforceable express consent, incurred risk, and unreasonable failure to avoid an injury or to mitigate damages.

Manufacturer

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-77. (a) “Manufacturer,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means a person or an entity who designs, assembles, fabricates, produces, constructs, or otherwise prepares a product or a component part of a product before the sale of the product to a user or consumer. “Manufacturer” includes a seller who:

1. has actual knowledge of a defect in a product;
2. creates and furnishes a manufacturer with specifications relevant to the alleged defect for producing the product or who otherwise exercises some significant control over all or a portion of the manufacturing process;
3. alters or modifies the product in any significant manner after the product comes into the seller's possession and before it is sold to the ultimate user or consumer;
4. is owned in whole or significant part by the manufacturer; or

5. owns in whole or significant part the manufacturer.

(b) A seller who discloses the name of the actual manufacturer of a product is not a manufacturer under this section merely because the seller places or has placed a private label on a product.

Nonparty

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-88. “Nonparty,” for purposes of IC 34-51-2, means a person who caused or contributed to cause the alleged injury, death, or damage to property but who has not been joined in the action as a defendant.

Physical Harm

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-105. (a) “Physical harm,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means bodily injury, death, loss of services, and rights arising from any such injuries, as well as sudden, major damage to property.

The term does not include gradually evolving damage to property or economic losses from such damage.

Product

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-114. (a) “Product,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means any item or good that is personalty at the time it is conveyed by the seller to another party.

(b) The term does not apply to a transaction that, by its nature, involves wholly or predominantly the sale of a service rather than a product.

Product Liability Action

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-115. “Product liability action,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means an action that is brought:

1. against a manufacturer or seller of a product; and
2. for or on account of physical harm; regardless of the substantive legal theory or theories upon which the action is brought.

Seller

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-136. “Seller,” for purposes of IC 34-20, means a person engaged in the business of selling or leasing a product for resale, use, or consumption.

Unreasonably Dangerous

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-146. “Unreasonably dangerous,” for purposes of IC 34-20, refers to any situation in which the use of a product exposes the user or consumer to a risk of physical harm to an extent beyond that contemplated by the ordinary consumer who purchases the product with the ordinary knowledge about the product's characteristics common to the community of consumers.

User

Ind. Code § 34-6-2-147. “User,” for purposes of IC 34-20, has the same meaning as the term “consumer,” which is set forth in section 29 [IC 34-6-2-29] of this chapter.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 1.

Indiana's Product Liability Act

General Provisions

Application of Article

Ind. Code § 34-20-1-1. This article governs all actions that are:

1. brought by a user or consumer;
2. against a manufacturer or seller; and
3. for physical harm caused by a product;

regardless of the substantive legal theory or theories upon which the action is brought.

Remedies Cumulative

Ind. Code § 34-20-1-2. This article shall not be construed to limit any other action from being brought against a seller of a product.

Severability

Ind. Code § 34-20-1-3. If a provision of this article or its application to a person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this article are severable.

Effective Date

Ind. Code § 34-20-1-4. This article does not apply to a cause of action that accrues before June 1, 1978.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Product Liability Actions

Grounds For Action

Ind. Code § 34-20-2-1. Except as provided in section 3 [IC 34-20-2-3] of this chapter, a person who sells, leases, or otherwise puts into the stream of commerce any product in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to any user or consumer or to the user's or consumer's property is subject to liability for physical harm caused by that product to the user or consumer or to the user's or consumer's property if:

1. that user or consumer is in the class of persons that the seller should reasonably foresee as being subject to the harm caused by the defective condition;
2. the seller is engaged in the business of selling the product; and
3. the product is expected to and does reach the user or consumer without substantial alteration in the condition in which the product is sold by the person sought to be held liable under this article.

Exercise of Reasonable Care; Privity

Ind. Code § 34-20-2-2. The rule stated in section 1 [IC 34-20-2-1] of this chapter applies although:

1. the seller has exercised all reasonable care in the manufacture and preparation of the product; and

2. the user or consumer has not bought the product from or entered into any contractual relation with the seller.

However, in an action based on an alleged design defect in the product or based on an alleged failure to provide adequate warnings or instructions regarding the use of the product, the party making the claim must establish that the manufacturer or seller failed to exercise reasonable care under the circumstances in designing the product or in providing the warnings or instructions.

Strict Liability of Manufacturer

Ind. Code § 34-20-2-3. A product liability action based on the doctrine of strict liability in tort may not be commenced or maintained against a seller of a product that is alleged to contain or possess a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to the user or consumer unless the seller is a manufacturer of the product or of the part of the product alleged to be defective.

Principal Distributor or Seller Deemed Manufacturer

Ind. Code § 34-20-2-4. If a court is unable to hold jurisdiction over a particular manufacturer of a product or part of a product alleged to be defective, then that manufacturer's principal distributor or seller over whom a court may hold jurisdiction shall be considered, for the purposes of this chapter, the manufacturer of the product.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Statute of Limitations and Statute of Repose

Negligence and Strict Liability in Tort Actions

Ind. Code § 34-20-3-1. (a) This section applies to all persons regardless of minority or legal disability.

Notwithstanding IC 34-11-6-1, this section applies in any product liability action in which the theory of liability is negligence or strict liability in tort.

(b) Except as provided in section 2 [IC 34-20-3-2] of this chapter, a product liability action must be commenced:

1. within two (2) years after the cause of action accrues; or
2. within ten (10) years after the delivery of the product to the initial user or consumer.

However, if the cause of action accrues at least eight (8) years but less than ten (10) years after that initial delivery, the action may be commenced at any time within two (2) years after the cause of action accrues.

Defective Products

Products Considered Defective

Ind. Code § 34-20-4-1. A product is in a defective condition under this article if, at the time it is conveyed by the seller to another party, it is in a condition:

1. not contemplated by reasonable persons among those considered expected users or consumers of the product; and
2. that will be unreasonably dangerous to the expected user or consumer when used in reasonably expectable ways of handling or consumption.

Failure to Provide Adequate Warnings or Instructions

Ind. Code § 34-20-4-2. A product is defective under this article if the seller fails to:

1. properly package or label the product to give reasonable warnings of danger about the product; or
2. give reasonably complete instructions on proper use of the product; when the seller, by exercising reasonable diligence, could have made such warnings or instructions available to the user or consumer.

Products Made Safe for Reasonably Expectable Handling and Consumption Not Considered Defective

Ind. Code § 34-20-4-3. A product is not defective under this article if it is safe for reasonably expectable handling and consumption. If an injury results from handling, preparation for use, or consumption that is not reasonably expectable, the seller is not liable under this article.

Products Incapable of Being Made Safe Not Considered Defective

Ind. Code § 34-20-4-4. A product is not defective under this article if the product is incapable of being made safe for its reasonably expectable use, when manufactured, sold, handled, and packaged properly.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Rebuttable Presumption that Product is Not Defective

Rebuttable Presumption

Ind. Code § 34-20-5-1. In a product liability action, there is a rebuttable presumption that the product that caused the physical harm was not defective and that the manufacturer or seller of the product was not negligent if, before the sale by the manufacturer, the product:

1. was in conformity with the generally recognized state of the art applicable to the safety of the product at the time the product was designed, manufactured, packaged, and labeled; or
2. complied with applicable codes, standards, regulations, or specifications established, adopted, promulgated, or approved by the United States or by Indiana, or by an agency of the United States or Indiana.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Defenses

Applicability of Defenses

Ind. Code § 34-20-6-1. The defenses in this chapter are defenses to an action brought under this article (or IC 33-1-1.5 before its repeal).

Burden of Proof

Ind. Code § 34-20-6-2. The burden of proof of any defense raised in an action under this article (or IC 33-1-1.5 before its repeal) is on the party raising the defense.

Use of Product with Knowledge of Defect or Danger

Ind. Code § 34-20-6-3. It is a defense to an action under this article (or IC 33-1-1.5 before its repeal) that the user or consumer bringing the action:

1. knew of the defect;

2. was aware of the danger in the product; and
3. nevertheless proceeded to make use of the product and was injured.

Misuse of Product

Ind. Code § 34-20-6-4. It is a defense to an action under this article (or IC 33-1-1.5 before its repeal) that a cause of the physical harm is a misuse of the product by the claimant or any other person not reasonably expected by the seller at the time the seller sold or otherwise conveyed the product to another party.

Modification or Alteration of Product

Ind. Code § 34-20-6-5. It is a defense to an action under this article (or IC 33-1-1.5 before its repeal) that a cause of the physical harm is a modification or alteration of the product made by any person after the product's delivery to the initial user or consumer if the modification or alteration is the proximate cause of physical harm where the modification or alteration is not reasonably expectable to the seller.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Assessing Liability with Multiple Defendants

Assessment of Liability

Ind. Code § 34-20-7-1. In a product liability action where liability is assessed against more than one (1) defendant, a defendant is not liable for more than the amount of fault, as determined under IC 34-20-8, directly attributable to that defendant. A defendant in a product liability action may not be held jointly liable for damages attributable to the fault of another defendant.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Assessing Percentage of Fault

Assessment of Percentage of Fault

Ind. Code § 34-20-8-1. (a) In a product liability action, the fault of the person suffering the physical harm, as well as the fault of all others who caused or contributed to cause the harm, shall be compared by the trier of fact in accordance with IC 34-51-2-7, IC 34-51-2-8, or IC 34-51-2-9.

- (b) In assessing percentage of fault, the jury shall consider the fault of all persons who contributed to the physical harm, regardless of whether the person was or could have been named as a party, as long as the nonparty was alleged to have caused or contributed to cause the physical harm.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Indemnity

Indemnification From Person Actually At Fault for Defect

Ind. Code § 34-20-9-1. This article does not affect the right of any person who is found liable to seek and obtain indemnity from any other person whose actual fault caused a product to be defective.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 15.

Indiana's Comparative Fault Act

Compensatory Damages: Comparative Fault

Applicability of Chapter

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-1. (a) This chapter governs any action based on fault that is brought to recover damages for injury or death to a person or harm to property, except as provided in subsection (b).

(b) This chapter does not apply to an action:

1. brought against a qualified health care provider under IC 16-9.5 (before its repeal), IC 27-12 (before its repeal), or IC 34-18 for medical malpractice; or
2. that accrued before January 1, 1985.

Governmental Entities and Public Employees Excepted

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-2. This chapter does not apply in any manner to tort claims against governmental entities or public employees under IC 34-13-3 (or IC 34-4-16.5 before its repeal).

Causation

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-3. In an action brought under this chapter (or IC 34-4-33 before its repeal), legal requirements of causal relation apply to:

1. fault as the basis for liability; and
2. contributory fault.

Defendant as Single Party

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-4. For purposes of sections 6 through 10 [IC 34-51-2-6 through IC 34-51-2-10] of this chapter, a defendant may be treated along with another defendant as a single party where recovery is sought against that defendant not based upon the defendant's own alleged act or omission but upon the defendant's relationship to the other defendant.

Effect of Contributory Fault

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-5. In an action based on fault, any contributory fault chargeable to the claimant diminishes proportionately the amount awarded as compensatory damages for an injury attributable to the claimant's contributory fault, but does not bar recovery except as provided in section 6 [IC 34-51-2-6] of this chapter.

Barring of Recovery; Degree of Contributory Fault

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-6. (a) In an action based on fault that is brought against:

1. one (1) defendant; or
2. two (2) or more defendants who may be treated as a single party;

the claimant is barred from recovery if the claimant's contributory fault is greater than the fault of all persons whose fault proximately contributed to the claimant's damages.

- (b) In an action based on fault that is brought against two (2) or more defendants, the claimant is barred from recovery if the claimant's contributory fault is greater than the fault of all persons whose fault proximately contributed to the claimant's damages.

Jury Instructions; Single Party Defendant

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-7. (a) This section applies to an action based on fault that is:

- 1. brought against one (1) defendant or two (2) or more defendants who may be treated as a single party; and
- 2. tried to a jury.

(b) The court, unless all the parties agree otherwise, shall instruct the jury to determine its verdict in the following manner:

- 1. The jury shall determine the percentage of fault of the claimant, of the defendant, and of any person who is a nonparty. The jury may not be informed of any immunity defense that is available to a nonparty. In assessing percentage of fault, the jury shall consider the fault of all persons who caused or contributed to cause the alleged injury, death, or damage to property, tangible or intangible, regardless of whether the person was or could have been named as a party. The percentage of fault of parties to the action may total less than one hundred percent (100%) if the jury finds that fault contributing to cause the claimant's loss has also come from a nonparty or nonparties.
- 2. If the percentage of fault of the claimant is greater than fifty percent (50%) of the total fault involved in the incident which caused the claimant's death, injury, or property damage, the jury shall return a verdict for the defendant and no further deliberation of the jury is required.
- 3. If the percentage of fault of the claimant is not greater than fifty percent (50%) of the total fault, the jury then shall determine the total amount of damages the claimant would be entitled to recover if contributory fault were disregarded.
- 4. The jury next shall multiply the percentage of fault of the defendant by the amount of damages determined under subdivision (3) and shall then enter a verdict for the claimant in the amount of the product of that multiplication.

Jury Instructions; Multiple Defendants

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-8. (a) This section applies to an action based on fault that:

- 1. is brought against two (2) or more defendants; and
- 2. is tried to a jury.

(b) The court, unless all the parties agree otherwise, shall instruct the jury to determine its verdict in the following manner:

- 1. The jury shall determine the percentage of fault of the claimant, of the defendants, and of any person who is a nonparty. The jury may not be informed of any immunity defense that might be available to a nonparty. In assessing percentage of fault, the jury shall consider the fault of all persons who caused or contributed to cause the alleged injury, death, or damage to property, tangible or intangible, regardless of whether the person was or could have been named as a party. The percentage of fault of parties to the action may total less than one hundred percent (100%) if the jury finds that fault contributing to cause the claimant's loss has also come from a nonparty or nonparties.

2. If the percentage of fault of the claimant is greater than fifty percent (50%) of the total fault involved in the incident which caused the claimant's death, injury, or property damage, the jury shall return a verdict for the defendants and no further deliberation of the jury is required.
3. If the percentage of fault of the claimant is not greater than fifty percent (50%) of the total fault, the jury shall then determine the total amount of damages the claimant would be entitled to recover if contributory fault were disregarded.
4. The jury next shall multiply the percentage of fault of each defendant by the amount of damages determined under subdivision (3) and shall enter a verdict against each defendant (and such other defendants as are liable with the defendant by reason of their relationship to a defendant) in the amount of the product of the multiplication of each defendant's percentage of fault times the amount of damages as determined under subdivision (3).

Trial Without Jury; Award of Damages

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-9. In an action based on fault that is tried by the court without a jury, the court shall make its award of damages according to the principles specified for juries in sections 7 and 8 [IC 34-51-2-7 and IC 34-51-2-8] of this chapter.

Intentional Torts; Full Recovery of Damages from Convicted Defendant

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-10. In the case of an intentional tort, the plaintiff may recover one hundred percent (100%) of the compensatory damages in a civil action for intentional tort from a defendant who was convicted after a prosecution based on the same evidence.

Form of Verdicts; Disclosure Requirements

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-11. The court shall furnish to the jury forms of verdicts that require only the disclosure of:

1. the percentage of fault charged against each party and nonparty; and
2. the amount of the verdict against each defendant.

If the evidence in the action is sufficient to support the charging of fault to a nonparty, the form of verdict also shall require a disclosure of the name of the nonparty and the percentage of fault charged to the nonparty.

Contribution; Indemnity

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-12. In an action under this chapter (or IC 34-4-33 before its repeal), there is no right of contribution among tortfeasors. However, this section does not affect any rights of indemnity.

Inconsistent Verdicts

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-13. In actions brought under this chapter (or IC 34-4-33 before its repeal), whenever a jury returns verdicts in which the ultimate amounts awarded are inconsistent with its determinations of total damages and percentages of fault, the trial court shall:

1. inform the jury of such inconsistencies;
2. order the jury to resume deliberations to correct the inconsistencies; and
3. instruct the jury that the jury is at liberty to change any portion or portions of the verdicts to correct the inconsistencies.

Nonparty Defense; Assertion

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-14. In an action based on fault, a defendant may assert as a defense that the damages of the claimant were caused in full or in part by a nonparty. This defense is referred to in this chapter as a nonparty defense.

Nonparty Defense; Burden of Proof

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-15. The burden of proof of a nonparty defense is upon the defendant, who must affirmatively plead the defense. However, this chapter does not relieve the claimant of the burden of proving that fault on the part of the defendant or defendants caused, in whole or in part, the damages of the claimant.

Nonparty Defense; Pleadings

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-16. A nonparty defense that is known by the defendant when the defendant files the defendant's first answer shall be pleaded as a part of the first answer. A defendant who gains actual knowledge of a nonparty defense after the filing of an answer may plead the defense with reasonable promptness.

However, if the defendant was served with a complaint and summons more than one hundred fifty (150) days before the expiration of the limitation of action applicable to the claimant's claim against the nonparty, the defendant shall plead any nonparty defense not later than forty-five (45) days before the expiration of that limitation of action. The trial court may alter these time limitations or make other suitable time limitations in any manner that is consistent with:

1. giving the defendant a reasonable opportunity to discover the existence of a nonparty defense; and
2. giving the claimant a reasonable opportunity to add the nonparty as an additional defendant to the action before the expiration of the period of limitation applicable to the claim.

Nonparty Defense; Medical Malpractice Claims

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-17. This section applies to a claim filed with the insurance commissioner under IC 16-9.5 (before its repeal), IC 27-12 (before its repeal), or IC 34-18 against a qualified health care provider, with the exception that the pleading of a nonparty defense, as required by sections 15 and 16 [IC 34-51-2-15 and IC 34-51-2-16] of this chapter must occur not later than ninety (90) days after the filing of the claim with the insurance commissioner. However, this time limitation may be enlarged or shortened by a court having jurisdiction over the claim in such matter as will give:

1. the qualified health care provider reasonable opportunity to discover the existence of a nonparty defense; and
2. the claimant reasonable opportunity to assert a claim against the nonparty before the expiration of the period of limitation applicable to the claim.

Actions Against Defendants Who Are Qualified Healthcare Providers and Who Are Not Qualified Health Care Providers; Delay; Joinder

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-18. (a) This section applies to an action based on fault that is brought by the claimant against:

1. one (1) or more defendants who are qualified health care providers under IC 34-18; and
2. one (1) or more defendants who are not qualified health care providers.

(b) Upon application of the claimant, the trial court shall grant reasonable delays in the action brought against those defendants who are not qualified health care providers until the medical review panel procedure can be completed as to the qualified health care providers.

- (c) When an action is permitted to be filed against the qualified health care providers, the trial court shall permit a joinder of the qualified health care providers as additional defendants in the action on file against the non-health care providers.

Liens or Claims To Diminish in Same Proportion As Claimant's Recovery Is Diminished

Ind. Code § 34-51-2-19. If a subrogation claim or other lien or claim that arose out of the payment of medical expenses or other benefits exists in respect to a claim for personal injuries or death and the claimant's recovery is diminished:

1. by comparative fault; or
2. by reason of the uncollectibility of the full value of the claim for personal injuries or death resulting from limited liability insurance or from any other cause; the lien or claim shall be diminished in the same proportion as the claimant's recovery is diminished. The party holding the lien or claim shall bear a pro rata share of the claimant's attorney's fees and litigation expenses.

As added by P.L. 1-1998, Sec. 47.

Action for Wrongful Death of an Adult

Wrongful Death Generally

Death From Wrongful Act or Omission

Ind. Code § 34-23-1-1. When the death of one is caused by the wrongful act or omission of another, the personal representative of the former may maintain an action therefore against the latter, if the former might have maintained an action had he or she, as the case may be, lived, against the latter for an injury for the same act or omission. When the death of one is caused by the wrongful act or omission of another, the action shall be commenced by the personal representative of the decedent within two (2) years, and the damages shall be in such an amount as may be determined by the court or jury, including, but not limited to, reasonable medical, hospital, funeral and burial expenses, and lost earnings of such deceased person resulting from said wrongful act or omission. That part of the damages which is recovered for reasonable medical, hospital, funeral and burial expense shall inure to the exclusive benefit of the decedent's estate for the payment thereof.
